

I am against the further concentration of media Broadcastng, newspapers, and radio. This proposal should be opened to public airing and comment, and not ram rodged through by powerful interests that will stifle diversity of opinions for profits. This is the public's property and essential to the conduct of an informed democratic nation.